PREFACE

With the growth of the Church and the dispersal of the faithful across continents, we see a large number of faithful who are not familiar with the Malayalam language. Just as our liturgy and prayers were translated into Malayalam from the original versions, we now have a need to have these prayers translated into English to enable the faithful to understand, connect with and uphold the worship forms that were handed down to us over the centuries by our holy fathers.

The parishoners of St Gregorios Indian Orthodox Church, Toronto, Canada, represent a microcosm of the emerging parishes outside India, particularly in North America, where we now see a new generation of faithful who are either not familiar with or are not native speakers of the Malayalam language.

It is our earnest hope that this translation of the Holy Week services of the Malankara (Indian) Orthodox Church will greatly help the new generation of our parishoners to actively participate in these services with all piety and devotion.

Yours in Christ,
Very Rev Lazarus Ramban, OIC, Cor Episcopa
Vicar, St Gregorios Indian Orthodox Church, Toronto

Lent, 2011

PALM SUNDAY

Narrative: Palm Sunday is the day we remember the "triumphant entry" of Jesus Christ into Jerusalem, exactly one week before His resurrection (Matthew 21:1-11). Some 450-500 years earlier, the Prophet Zechariah had prophesied, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, Lowly and riding on a donkey, A colt, the foal of a donkey" (Zechariah 9:9). Matthew 21:7-9 records the fulfillment of that prophecy: "They brought the donkey and the colt, laid their clothes on them, and set Him on them. And a very great multitude spread their clothes on the road; others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road. Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying: 'Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD! Hosanna in the highest!'".

The Malankara Orthodox Palm Sunday Liturgical service is conducted traditionally after the preparation of the Holy Liturgy (Thuyabo), just before the public celebration of the Eucharist starts. However, it may also be conducted during the time of "Bath-Melko" after elevation of the Holy Mysteries, but, before communion. Highlights of the Palm Sunday service include the procession around the Church symbolizing the Hosanna procession of the Lord and the blessing of the palms, With great solemnity, the procession comprising the priests, deacons and laity exits the Church through the north door and walking towards the west, re-enters the church through the south door.

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.

PROMIYON/SEDRO

Celebrant : Let us pray to the Lord for mercy and compassion.

Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy on us and help us.

Celebrant : Glory and thanksgiving, praise and adoration and unceasing exaltation, truly at all times and hours, may we ascribe unto Thee, O Lord, the most high whom the Seraphim sings Holy, Holy, Holy in the heights; the most eminent by nature; and the most blessed and sanctified whom the Cherubim glorify with trembling, and the infants praise with happiness; and the greatest whose magnitude the angels proclaim, and whom on the streets of Zion innocent children praised according to Thy pleasure; to HIM be glory and honour at this time of the blessing of the palms and all festivals, and in all times and seasons, and all the days of our life, forever and ever.

Response : Amen

Celebrant : The God whose might of honour is great, whose depth of operation is great, who is good by nature, who is merciful because of His love for humanity, came to His own to redeem His creation towards the worship of His honour, and sought an ignoble donkey for His ride to Jerusalem for His redemptive sufferings. This symbolized us, the people who were redeemed from the Gentiles who were going in the wrong path of the devil. The Holy prophets had prophesied about this festival through the words of the Holy Spirit. Jacob, the third among the patriarchs and the head of the scribes, had predicted: the scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs and the obedience of the nations is his. The Gentiles will look up to Him, and He will tie his donkey on the branches of a grapevine. The prophet, Zachariah had announced in advance to Zion, the Holy assembly, about this festival: "Behold, your king comes to you in humility riding a donkey and a young donkey". The divine prophets had sung in advance about this feast of Hosanna : "Praise had been prepared for the Lord in the mouths of children and youth ". "Awake, awake, Jerusalem, put on the might of the Lord " so proclaimed Isaiah, the glorious prophet.

And therefore, with spiritual joy we praise and glorify this feast which invites majesty and solemnly utter : To the self-existing of the self-existing , who came to redeem the world from the slavery of sin;

Response : Hosanna !!

To the Son and Lord of David, about whom the children cried aloud, "Blessed be the one who has come in the name of the Lord ":

Response : Hosanna !!

To the invisible in his mighty eternity who selected an ignoble donkey as his chariot :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the one who by Thy grace became humble to lift our race from lowliness and to redeem us from the deterioration of our race :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the one who humbled Himself to ride a donkey :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the goal of eternal life which attracted praise from the mouths of infants :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the victorious and the blessed one who by His humbleness conquered the combat of the devil :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the compassionate who gladdened His church with blessed and holy feasts :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the righteous and merciful who effaced the darkness of ignorance by His redemptive operations :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the infinite ocean of help which endowed the mouth of children with the utterance of praises :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the righteous and blessed one who retained his transcending godhead even after He had come down to be incarnate by his holy will :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the harbour of salvation which redeemed our race from sinful fall :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the true one, and the merciful and graceful one, who prepared his praises through the mouths of infants and children :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the formless, burning and consuming fire which brightens His friends by His own brightness :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the eternal hope for all four quarters of the universe whose arrival was announced in advance by prophets :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the creator and maker of all that breathes who turned infants and children to be new cantors of his glory :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the redeemer who saved the world by his operation :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the perfect image of the perfect father who by His own will came down to elevate us to the glorious heights of His majesty :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the one who by nature is Holy and for whom the infants cried out "Blessed is He who has come in the name of the Lord :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the great one who lowered Himself without sacrificing the greatness of his majesty; to make us great by his operation :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the one who had compassionately forgiven the debts of the head of our race and is forgiving the debts of transgressors :

Response : Hosanna !!

To the glory and image of the invisible father whose praises the infants surprisingly had cried aloud :

Response : Hosanna !!

Christ our Lord , we beseech Thee, accept the praises of our mouths as those of the children and infants. Grant words of wisdom to the high priests, radiance to the priests, purity to the deacons, maturity to the sub-deacons, tolerance to the monks, philanthropy to the rich, greater protection to the poor, exaltation to the churches, security to the monasteries, tranquility to the rulers, obedience to the soldiers, forgiveness to the sinners, return for the misguided, peace and tranquility to the angry, good hope to all the faithful, and remission of sins to the departed. Grant us and them the readiness to stand before Thee with the glory of Thy majesty and that of Thy Father and of Thy Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Response : Amen .

Celebrant : May we receive from God remission of debts and forgiveness of sins, in both worlds for ever and ever.

Response : Amen.

Celebrant : O Lord , open to us the high door of Thy majestic heavens, and the glorious sanctuaries of Thy eternal compassion and may the fragrance of the incense rise from our midst to the lines of the Fiery. Accept this incense from us, weak and sinful, on this feast which gives joy to the heavenly and earthly, especially to all who celebrate the feast of Thy redemption; and answer our true request. Lord, protect all the faithful by Thy mercy; forgive all sinners and debtors by this celebration; give rest to the souls of all the faithful departed. We offer praise and thanks to Thee, to Thy Father and to Thy Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Response : Amen.

Celebrant : O Christ, Our Lord, Thy ascending on an ignoble donkey symbolized Thy desire to welcome the unclean gentiles for redemption; and by riding over the branches of olives and palms, Thou hast promised us victory over our sufferings. The promise of the words of the just and the expectation of the righteous and the one who gave us hope of resurrection and life after our death; grant us grace to celebrate Thy feast carrying eternal branches of the spiritual paradise along with all departed saints who performed Thy will. We offer praise and thanks to Thee, Thy Holy Father and to Thy Holy Spirit now and for ever.

Response : Amen.

Genesis 49 : 8 - 12

"Judah, your brothers will praise you; your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons will bow down to you. You are a lion's cub, O Judah; you return from the prey, my son. Like a lion he crouches and lies down, like a lioness--who dares to rouse him? The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs and the obedience of the nations is his. He will tether his donkey to a vine, his colt to the choicest branch; he will wash his garments in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes. His eyes will be darker than wine, his teeth whiter than milk. Barekmor.

Zachariah 9 : 9 – 12

Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion! Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the war-horses from Jerusalem, and the battle bow will be broken. He will proclaim peace to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth. As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will free your prisoners from the waterless pit. Return to your fortress, O prisoners of hope; even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you. Barekmor.

Isaiah 51 : 9 – 11

Awake, awake! Clothe yourself with strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in days gone by, as in generations of old. Was it not you who cut Rahab to pieces, who pierced that monster through? Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep, who made a road in the depths of the sea so that the redeemed might cross over? The ransomed of the LORD will return. They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away. Barekmor.

1 John 2 : 7 - 15

Dear friends, I am not writing you a new command but an old one, which you have had since the beginning. This old command is the message you have heard. Yet I am writing you a new command; its truth is seen in him and you, because the darkness is passing and the true light is already shining. Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates his brother is still in the darkness. Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and there is nothing in him to make him stumble. But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks around in the darkness; he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded him. I write to you, dear children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of his name. I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, dear children, because you have known the Father. I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God lives in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. Habibai Barekmor.

Response : Glory be to the Lord of the Apostles and his mercy be upon us for ever. Amen.

Romans 11 : 12 – 24

But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their fullness bring! I am talking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I make much of my ministry in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to envy and save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches. If some of the branches have been broken off, and you, though a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root, do not boast over those branches. If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you. You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in." Granted. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either. Consider therefore the kindness and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off. And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree! Ahai Barekmor.

Mark 11 : 1 – 18

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' tell him, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.'" They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, some people standing there asked, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!" "Hosanna in the highest!" Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve. The next day as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to find out if it had any fruit. When he reached it, he found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs. Then he said to the tree, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard him say it. On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple area and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves, and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. And as he taught them, he said, "Is it not written: " 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations' ? But you have made it 'a den of robbers.' " The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching. Barekmor, Peace Be unto you all ...

PESAHA (PASSEVER SERVICE)

Narrative : Pesaha is also known as Maundy Thursday or Holy Thursday. It is the day on which Jesus celebrated the Passover with His disciples, known as the Last Supper. Two important events are the focus of Maundy Thursday. First, Jesus celebrated the Last Supper with His disciples and thereby instituted the Lord’s Supper, also called Holy Communion (Luke 22:19-20). Second, Jesus washed the disciples’ feet as an act of humility and service, thereby setting an example that we should love and serve one another in humility (John 13:3-17). The word “Maundy” is derived from the Latin word for “command.” The command Jesus gave to His disciples is that they should love and serve one another in humility.

The Malankara Orthodox Passover (Pesaha) Liturgical service is conducted traditionally in the very early hours (02.00 A.M) on Thursday in the Holy week. In some of our Parishes outside Kerala, where members need to travel long distance to attend the service, it is observed on Wednesday evening. The Passover service commemorates the Last Supper Jesus had with His Disciples and the institution of the “Holy Eucharist“ by Our Lord. Our Church insists that all faithful must receive Holy Communion on this day with proper confession.

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor.

PSALM – 141

1. I call to you, LORD, come quickly to me; hear me when I call to you.
2. May my prayer be set before you like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.
3. Set a guard over my mouth, LORD; keep watch over the door of my lips.
4. Do not let my heart be drawn to what is evil so that I take part in wicked deeds along with those who are evildoers; do not let me eat their delicacies.
5. Let a righteous man strike me—that is a kindness; let him rebuke me—that is oil on my head. My head will not refuse it, for my prayer will still be against the deeds of evildoers.
6. Their rulers will be thrown down from the cliffs, and the wicked will learn that my words were well spoken.
7. They will say, “As one plows and breaks up the earth, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of the grave.”
8. But my eyes are fixed on you, Sovereign LORD; in you I take refuge—do not give me over to death.
9. Keep me safe from the traps set by evildoers, from the snares they have laid for me.
10. Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by in safety.

PSALM 142

1. I cry aloud to the LORD; I lift up my voice to the LORD for mercy.
2. I pour out before him my complaint; before him I tell my trouble.
3. When my spirit grows faint within me, it is you who watch over my way. In the path here I walk people have hidden a snare for me.
4. Look and see, there is no one at my right hand; no one is concerned for me. I have no refuge; no one cares for my life.
5. I cry to you, LORD; I say, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.”
6. Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need; rescue me from those who pursue me, for they are too strong for me.

7. Set me free from my prison, that I may praise your name. Then the righteous will gather about me because of your goodness to me.

PSALM 119 : 105 – 112

1. Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path.
2. I have taken an oath and confirmed it, that I will follow your righteous laws.
3. I have suffered much; preserve my life, LORD, according to your word.
4. Accept, LORD, the willing praise of my mouth, and teach me your laws.
5. Though I constantly take my life in my hands, I will not forget your law.
6. The wicked have set a snare for me, but I have not strayed from your precepts.
7. Your statutes are my heritage forever; they are the joy of my heart.
8. My heart is set on keeping your decrees to the very end

PSALM 117

1. Praise the LORD, all you nations; extol him, all you peoples.
2. For great is his love toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor

1. This evening our Lord revealed to his disciples about the passion he is going to suffer. He told them that he is going to be persecuted by the evil men who enjoyed the benefits of His miracles and he will be unjustly condemned and crucified with criminals. Blessed is His greatness that while having no boundaries in eternity, He humbled himself to gave himself up to the evil men who caught him and took him to tribunal.

2. Disciples were extremely sad when the Lord and our Savior told them that one among them will betray him and hand him over to the Jews and he will suffer passion and will be crucified. Devil entered in to the betrayer Judas and he went to the High Priests and sold the Lord and took from them thirty shillings, the price of the rope for him to hang himself.

HOLY EVANGELIYON

St. John 7:45-52, 8:12-20

Finally the temple guards went back to the chief priests and the Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring him in?" "No one ever spoke the way this man does," the guards replied. "You mean he has deceived you also?" the Pharisees retorted. "Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him? No! But this mob that knows nothing of the law—there is a curse on them." Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus earlier and who was one of their own number, asked, "Does our law condemn a man without first hearing him to find out what he has been doing?" They replied, "Are you from Galilee, too? Look into it, and you will find that a prophet does not come out of Galilee."

When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." The Pharisees challenged him, "Here you are, appearing as your own witness; your testimony is not valid." Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going. You judge by human standards; I pass judgment on no one. But if I do judge, my decisions are true, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me. In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is true. I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me." Then they asked him, "Where is your father?" "You do not know me or my Father," Jesus replied. "If you knew me, you would know my Father also." He spoke these words while teaching in the temple courts near the place where the offerings were put. Yet no one seized him, because his hour had not yet come.

MORAN YESHU MESIHA

O Jesus Christ, our Lord, close not the door of Thy mercy upon our faces. We confess, we are sinners; have mercy upon us. O Lord, Thy love for us didst make Thee to come down to us from Thy place that by Thy death, our death be abolished; Have mercy upon us. Amen.

GOOD FRIDAY - MALAYALAM/MANGLISH/ENGLISH.

Narrative : Malankara Orthodox Church observes the Good Friday, commemorating the crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ on the Cross. The service extends from morning 8.30 till 3.30 p.m. covering the whole 6 Hours Jesus was on the Cross and The Lord's sufferings which preceded the crucifixion and the burial which followed.

MORNING PRAYER

Narrative : The Temple Guards, guided by Jesus' disciple Judas Iscariot, arrested Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane. Following his arrest, Jesus was brought to the house of Hannan, who was the father-in-law of the high priest, Caiaphas. There Jesus was interrogated with little result and sent bound to Caiaphas the high priest where the Sanhedrin (Supreme council and court of justice of the Jews) had assembled (John 18:1-24). Conflicting testimony against Jesus was brought forth by many witnesses, to which Jesus answered nothing. Finally the high priest adjures Jesus to respond under solemn oath, saying "I adjure you, by the Living God, to tell us, are you the Anointed One, the Son of God?" Jesus testifies in the affirmative, "You have said it, and in time you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Almighty, coming on the clouds of Heaven." The high priest condemns Jesus for blasphemy, and the Sanhedrin Trial of Jesus concurs with a sentence of death (Matthew 26:57-66). In the morning, the whole assembly brings Jesus to the Roman governor Pontius Pilate under charges of subverting the nation, opposing taxes to Caesar, and making himself a king (Luke 23:1-2).

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor.

PSALM : 63

1. You, God, are my God, earnestly I seek you; I thirst for you, my whole being longs for you, in a dry and parched land where there is no water.
2. I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory.
3. Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you.
4. I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands.
5. I will be fully satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you.
6. On my bed I remember you; I think of you through the watches of the night.
7. Because you are my help, I sing in the shadow of your wings.
8. I cling to you; your right hand upholds me.
9. Those who want to kill me will be destroyed; they will go down to the depths of the earth.
10. They will be given over to the sword and become food for jackals.
11. But the king will rejoice in God; all who swear by God will glory in him, while the mouths of liars will be silenced.

And to You belongs the praise, O God, Barekmor, Shubaho Men'Olam.....

Celebrant : Let us all pray and beseech the Lord for mercy and compassion.

Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy upon us and help us.

Celebrant : Make us worthy, O Lord, to offer up continually at all times and in all seasons praise and thanksgiving, glory and honor and never ceasing exaltation.

Praise be to Thee, O Great Savior, who was willingly led to slaughter like a lamb; and who like an ewe before the shearer remained silent before Pilate; and who was falsely condemned to death by the unjust; and the judge of judges who freed us from the sentence of sin by his grace; and the God of infinite majesty who did not turn away when He was mocked and derided; and who by His Grace saved us from the shame of sin; and the mighty God who accepted being spit upon by the wicked; and the Glorious Lord who gave brilliance of face to Adam who disobeyed God's commandment and restored Adam to his heritage; to Him be Glory and honor with His Father and with His Holy Spirit, at this time of the Morning worship of Thy Holy Passion, at all feasts, seasons and hours and all the days of our lives forever.

Response : Amen.

Celebrant : Glory Be to Thee O God the Word, who existed before the beginning of time with the Father; and who at the appointed time was born of a Holy virgin; and who in this human life fulfilled the words and signs of the prophets. The mystery which was hidden for generations and races had become visible in the center of the world today. The gracious Lord whose power is mighty and the magnificence is mightier than the Fiery and the Heavenly Hosts appeared humble on earth today. The Lord whom the angels and archangels fear and tremble is caught and arrested by earthly men. The Lord who is carried by Cherubims and praised by Seraphim's was derided today by earthly clay. The heavenly Lord whose Glory is far greater than the heavenly hosts was mocked by servants. This Friday morning Pilate sat on his throne to judge and the Lord stood bound in front of him as a criminal. The Lord before whom the Seraphim and all heavenly hosts prostrate in praise is spat upon arrogantly by the wicked. The one whose glory and praise is uttered in the heaven was beaten by whips made of metal. The Lord of all creations before whom all creations stands for judgement stood today before his creation for his own trial. The Lord who created the sky as a roof over the earth and who spread the earth over the ocean for human inhabitation was sentenced today by Pilate.

On Friday morning, Lord made Adam the King in Paradise and on Friday morning the Lord was sentenced to death. On Friday morning, God created Adam and on Friday morning the Lord received punishment from Adam's children. On Friday morning, Adam lost his grace when he sinned against God and was exiled from Paradise and on Friday morning Adam's Lord took beatings from evil men for Adam. The Lord who measures the mountains with his word and stopped the ocean with sand for the Israelites to walk through stood bound today in front of a judge. The Lord who gives his word and wisdom to his children was locked up in the house of Hannan. The Lord who grants the gift of speech stood silent today before his arrogant persecutors. In the heaven the Fiery is trembling seeing their Lord standing judgment before a tribunal, while on earth the wicked mocks and derides their Lord and savior. In the heavens, the Cherubs glorify their Lord, whereas beneath on the earth, the criminals abuse Him. In the heights, the Seraphims says Holy, Holy; whereas below on the earth the evil men accuse Him. The Lord who adorns brightness in heaven, wears the garment of scorn on earth. The Lord who is surrounded by chariot of fire in heaven is nailed to a cross between two thieves on earth. The Lord who is glorified and praised with His Father in heaven, stood today for trial among criminals on earth. The Lord who is King of all Kings and adorns crowns on Kings in heaven is adorning crown of thorns on earth. The Lord who is glorified on his throne in heaven with His Father and the Holy Spirit is scorned and derided by criminals. The Lord who had commanded the cherubims to guard the tree of life, had his side pierced with a lance on earth. The Lord who made bitter waters of Mara in to sweet was offered bitterness and vinegar to drink on earth. The Lord who had blown the breath of life in to Adam today descended dead in to abyss and was counted among the dead.

Because of all these, Our Lord and our God, we thank Thee for enduring all these for Adam's descendants, and beg for Thy compassion to accept this incense which we unworthy offer with fear and trembling. May we earthly, be made capable to share in Thy sufferings and to imitate Thy spirit of self sacrifice so that we may rejoice eternity with Thee and shall praise Thee in Thy kingdom along with all who lived according to Thy will; and we give Thee glory and praise and to Thy Father and to Thy Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

The LORD said to Moses, “Say to the Israelites: ‘When anyone sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands - “If the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, he must bring to the LORD a young bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he has committed. He is to present the bull at the entrance to the tent of meeting before the LORD. He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it there before the LORD. Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull’s blood and carry it into the tent of meeting. He is to dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before the LORD, in front of the curtain of the sanctuary. The priest shall then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting. The rest of the bull’s blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Barekmor.”

“Awake, sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is close to me!” declares the LORD Almighty. “Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn my hand against the little ones. In the whole land,” declares the LORD, “two-thirds will be struck down and perish; yet one-third will be left in it. This third I will put into the fire; I will refine them like silver and test them like gold. They will call on my name and I will answer them; I will say, ‘They are my people,’ and they will say, ‘The LORD is our God.’” A day of the LORD is coming, Jerusalem, when your possessions will be plundered and divided up within your very walls. I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem to fight against it; the city will be captured, the houses ransacked, and the women raped. Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be taken from the city. Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as he fighters on a day of battle. On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and half moving south. You will flee by my mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. “Now, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own imagination. Prophesy against them and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on all their wrists and make veils of various lengths for their heads in order to ensnare people. Will you ensnare the lives of my people but preserve your own? You have profaned me among my people for a few handfuls of barley and scraps of bread. By lying to my people, who listen to lies, you have killed those who should not have died and have spared those who should not live. “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against your magic charms with which you ensnare people like birds and I will tear them from your arms; I will set free the people that you ensnare like birds. I will tear off your veils and save my people from your hands, and they will no longer fall prey to your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD. Because you disheartened the righteous with your lies, when I had brought them no grief, and because you encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and so save their lives, Barekmor.

Acts of the Apostles : 22 : 30 – 23 : 16

The commander wanted to find out exactly why Paul was being accused by the Jews. So the next day he released him and ordered the chief priests and all the members of the Sanhedrin to assemble. Then he brought Paul and had him stand before them. Paul looked straight at the Sanhedrin and said, "My brothers, I have fulfilled my duty to God in all good conscience to this day." At this the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth. Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by commanding that I be struck!" Those who were standing near Paul said, "How dare you insult God's high priest!" Paul replied, "Brothers, I did not realize that he was the high priest; for it is written: 'Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.'" Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees and the others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin, "My brothers, I am a Pharisee, descended from Pharisees. I stand on trial because of the hope of the resurrection of the dead." When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. (The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, and that there are neither angels nor spirits, but the Pharisees believe all these things.) There was a great uproar, and some of the teachers of the law who were Pharisees stood up and argued vigorously. "We find nothing wrong with this man," they said. "What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?" The dispute became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them. He ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force and bring him into the barracks. The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, "Take courage! As you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome." The next morning some Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. More than forty men were involved in this plot. They went to the chief priests and the elders and said, "We have taken a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed Paul. Now then, you and the Sanhedrin petition the commander to bring him before you on the pretext of wanting more accurate information about his case. We are ready to kill him before he gets here." But when the son of Paul's sister heard of this plot, he went into the barracks and told Paul. . Habibay Barekmor.

1 Corinthians 1 : 18 – 31

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate." Where is the wise person? Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength. Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him.

It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption. Therefore, as it is written: “Let the one who boasts boast in the Lord.”

Ahai Barekmor.

St. Mathew 27:1-10,

Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people made their plans how to have Jesus executed. So they bound him, led him away and handed him over to Pilate the governor. When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders. “I have sinned,” he said, “for I have betrayed innocent blood.” “What is that to us?” they replied. “That’s your responsibility.” So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself. The chief priests picked up the coins and said, “It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money.” So they decided to use the money to buy the potter’s field as a burial place for foreigners. That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: “They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price set on him by the people of Israel, and they used them to buy the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”

Luke 22:63-71; Matthew 27:3-10; Mark 15:1-10
[Luke 22:63-71]

The men who were guarding Jesus began mocking and beating him. They blindfolded him and demanded, "Prophecy! Who hit you?" And they said many other insulting things to him. At daybreak the council of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and the teachers of the law, met together, and Jesus was led before them. "If you are the Messiah," they said, "tell us." Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe me, and if I asked you, you would not answer. But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God." They all asked, "Are you then the Son of God?" He replied, "You say that I am." Then they said, "Why do we need any more testimony? We have heard it from his own lips."

[Matthew 27: 3-10]

When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders. "I have sinned," he said, "for I have betrayed innocent blood." "What is that to us?" they replied. "That's your responsibility." So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself. The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money." So they decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price set on him by the people of Israel, and they used them to buy the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."

Mark 15:1-10

Very early in the morning, the chief priests, with the elders, the teachers of the law and the whole Sanhedrin, reached a decision. They bound Jesus, led him away and handed him over to Pilate. "Are you the king of the Jews?" asked Pilate. "Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied. The chief priests accused him of many things. So again Pilate asked him, "Aren't you going to answer? See how many things they are accusing you of." But Jesus still made no reply, and Pilate was amazed. Now it was the custom at the Feast to release a prisoner whom the people requested. A man called Barabbas was in prison with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the uprising. The crowd came up and asked Pilate to do for them what he usually did. "Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?" asked Pilate, knowing it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him.

3RD HOUR PRAYER

Narrative : Pilate authorized the Jewish leaders to judge Jesus according to their own law and execute sentencing; however, the Jewish leaders replied that they are not allowed by the Romans to carry out a sentence of death (John 18:31). Pilate questions Jesus and tells the assembly that there is no basis for sentencing. Upon learning that Jesus is from Galilee, Pilate refers the case to the ruler of Galilee, King Herod, who was in Jerusalem for the Passover Feast. Herod questions Jesus but receives no answer; Herod sends Jesus back to Pilate. Pilate tells the assembly that neither he nor Herod have found guilt in Jesus; Pilate resolves to have Jesus whipped and released (Luke 23:3-16).

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor.

Response : Amen

Celebrant : Glory to you , O God the Word who was brought low while still having all eminence; who has left your dwelling place in heaven and who became man without abandoning your divinity. We are grateful to you because you allowed them to seize you and whip you; you did not complain; they struck you and you did not take offence; they mocked you and you did not protest; they stripped you of your clothing, without feeling ashamed; they clothed you in purple to mock you and you did not shirk from it; they nailed you to the cross and you did not flee; they tormented you without your divine nature undergoing the least change; they crowned you with thorns and you did not turn away; they offered you vinegar and gall and this did not bother you. Glory to you, who in your great meekness prayed for those who tormented you, to ask forgiveness from your eternal father for them. The east looked at you and was saddened, the west was stupefied and the other points of the horizon saw you and mourned; in the heavens, the sun hid itself. The moon was ashamed, the stars fell. The veil of the temple was rent in two; mountains and hills gave way. At noon it was like night; in sheol death was struck; the bodies of the dead rose; sin was abolished and mankind obtained its salvation. O God the word, who for our salvation degraded yourself this way, we ask you that this incense may give glory to your holy name . Allow us to share in your great wisdom, to be capable of dying for the good and un-selfish. Make us ready to honor your glorious cross, so that each day we may carry it ourselves with courage, and protect all who fear you by the sign of your life giving cross in order that in purity and holiness we give to you glory and praise and to your Father and to the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

Response : Amen.

St. John 19 : 15 – 22

But they shouted, "Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!" "Shall I crucify your king?" Pilate asked. "We have no king but Caesar," the chief priests answered. Finally Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified. So the soldiers took charge of Jesus. Carrying his own cross, he went out to the place of the Skull (which in Aramaic is called Golgotha). There they crucified him, and with him two others—one on each side and Jesus in the middle. Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek. The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate, "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but that this man claimed to be king of the Jews." Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

Third Hour Readings:

Luke 23:2-3; John 18:28-40; Mark 15:12-18; Matthew 27:12-14; Luke 23:4-16; Matthew 27:15-21; Luke 23:22; Matthew 27:24-25; Luke 23:23-25; Matthew 27:26-31

Luke 23:2-3

And they began to accuse him, saying, "We have found this man subverting our nation. He opposes payment of taxes to Caesar and claims to be Messiah, a king." So Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?" "You have said so," Jesus replied.

John 18: 28-40

Then the Jewish leaders took Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor. By now it was early morning, and to avoid ceremonial uncleanness they did not enter the palace, because they wanted to be able to eat the Passover. So Pilate came out to them and asked, "What charges are you bringing against this man?" "If he were not a criminal," they replied, "we would not have handed him over to you." Pilate said, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law.” “But we have no right to execute anyone,” they objected. This took place to fulfill what Jesus had said about the kind of death he was going to die. Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Is that your own idea,” Jesus asked, “or did others talk to you about me?” “Am I a Jew?” Pilate replied. “Your own people and chief priests handed you over to me. What is it you have done?” Jesus said, “My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jewish leaders. But now my kingdom is from another place.” “You are a king, then!” said Pilate. Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. In fact, the reason I was born and came into the world is to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me.” “What is truth?” retorted Pilate. With this he went out again to the Jews gathered there and said, “I find no basis for a charge against him. But it is your custom for me to release to you one prisoner at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to release ‘the king of the Jews’?” They shouted back, “No, not him! Give us Barabbas!” Now Barabbas had taken part in an uprising.

Mark 15:12-18

What shall I do, then, with the one you call the king of the Jews?” Pilate asked them. “Crucify him!” they shouted. “Why? What crime has he committed?” asked Pilate. But they shouted all the louder, “Crucify him!” Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified. The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers. They put a purple robe on him, then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on him. And they began to call out to him, “Hail, king of the Jews!”

Matthew 27:12-14

When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer. Then Pilate asked him, “Don’t you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?” But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge—to the great amazement of the governor.

Luke 23:4-16

Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.” But they insisted, “He stirs up the people all over Judea by his teaching. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here.” On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean. ⁷ When he learned that Jesus was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see him. From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform a sign of some sort. He plied him with many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer. The chief priests and the teachers of the law were standing there, vehemently accusing him. Then Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe, they sent him back to Pilate. That day Herod and Pilate became friends—before this they had been enemies. Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people, and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined him in your presence and have found no basis for your charges against him. Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you can see, he has done nothing to deserve death. Therefore, I will punish him and then release him."

Matthew 27:15-21

Now it was the governor's custom at the festival to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd. At that time they had a well-known prisoner whose name was Barabbas. So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?" For he knew it was out of self-interest that they had handed Jesus over to him. While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him this message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him." But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed. "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" asked the governor. "Barabbas," they answered.

Luke 23:22

For the third time he spoke to them: "Why? What crime has this man committed? I have found in him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore I will have him punished and then release him."

Matthew 27:24-25

When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood," he said. "It is your responsibility!" All the people answered, "His blood is on us and on our children!"

Luke 23:23-25

But with loud shouts they insistently demanded that he be crucified, and their shouts prevailed. So Pilate decided to grant their demand. He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, the one they asked for, and surrendered Jesus to their will.

Matthew 27:26-31

Then he released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified. Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers around him. They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand. Then they knelt in front of him and mocked him. "Hail, king of the Jews!" they said. They spit on him, and took the staff and struck him on the head again and again. After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

6TH HOUR PRAYER

Narrative : Under the guidance of the chief priests, the crowd asks for Barabbas, who had been imprisoned for committing murder during an insurrection. Pilate asks what they would have him do with Jesus, and they demand, "Crucify him" (Mark 15:6-14). Pilate's wife had seen Jesus in a dream earlier that day, and she forewarns Pilate to "have nothing to do with this righteous man" (Matthew 27:19). Pilate has Jesus flogged and then brings him out to the crowd to release him. The chief priests inform Pilate of a new charge, demanding Jesus be sentenced to death "because he claimed to be God's son." This possibility filled Pilate with fear, and he brought Jesus back inside the palace and demanded to know from where he came (John 19:1-9).

Grace a-nd mercy be up-on us sinners,

Opened, be to us gates of Je-rusalem.

May o-ur pleas be heard at the Throne of Christ,

Praise to - Thee, O Lord Praise to - Thee, O Lord Ever

Praise to Thee, our h-ope . Barekmor.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our debts and sins as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from the evil one, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor.

PROMIYON - SEDRA

Celebrant : Let us all pray and beseech the Lord for mercy and compassion.

Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy upon us and help us.

Celebrant : Make us worthy, O Lord, to offer up continually at all times and in all seasons praise and thanksgiving, glory and honor and never ceasing exaltation.

Praise be to the acceptable Oblation Who offered Himself on the wood of the Cross and cleansed our guilt by Him being offered up in sacrifice for our sake; who died and restored us to life by His death; Who rose and raised us by His resurrection; Who ascended to heaven and took us up with Him; to Him belongs praise and honor with His Father and with His Holy Spirit, at this time of the 6th Hour worship of Thy Holy Passion, at all feasts, seasons and hours and all the days of our lives forever.

Response : Amen.

Celebrant : Glory be to Thee O creator who created the world and everything in it by Thy wisdom and words in six days. In the six days of Thy passion, the Father's only begotten son fulfilled the words and signs of the prophets and renewed the creation. On Friday, by his implicit obedience, he blotted out the sins of the disobedient Adam, the father of our race. On Friday, the begotten Son stretched his hands across the cross and stabilized the hands of Adam that stretched to the tree to pluck the fruit. Thou has suffered passion and crucifixion from the blood-thirsty murderers to save Adam and his race from the deep valley of sin. Woe unto them who plotted against Thee even though they knew that Thou wast the son of God. They accused Thee of wrongdoings and prepared to shed innocent blood. Even though they could have saved their souls by turning away from their evil deeds, they became cold hearted and took Thee to the judge; made Thee carry the cross and crucified Thee. They savagely thrust a crown of thorns on Thy divine head and they ridiculed Thee and spat on Thee. They stripped Thee of Thy clothes and forced Thee to wear a red tunic to deride Thee. They nailed Thy hands and feet on to the cross and offered Thee bitterness and vinegar to drink. They pierced Thy body and blood and water shed from it. At mid-day darkness fell over the earth and Thou cried aloud, "My God, My God, why you have forsaken me?". At that moment the veil of the temple was torn in to two pieces from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, the rocks were split and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. Seeing their Lord hanging on the cross, the cherubims trembled in fear, the seraphims quivered and the angels and archangels were puzzled. The disciples ran and hid and the friends scattered. O Lord the prophesy about Thee "O son of Brachia, wake up, the shepherd is beaten and the flock is scattered" was thus fulfilled. O angels and archangels where are you? O Michael, the most powerful angel, where is your aggressiveness? Where is your sword that annihilated thousands of Assyrians? O Gabriel, the chief of the angels where is your anger?

Disciples don't be afraid, gather strength and come together. Today your Lord is crucified; on Sunday he will rise from dead. Simon and John where are you going? Bartholomew, where are your running? Thomas, where are you moving to? Philip, where are you distancing yourself? Andrew, why are you grieving? Jacob, why are you crying? Laabi, why are you mourning? Disciples, don't be afraid and scatter, you will be reunited on Sunday. Today, you are running out of fear, but on Sunday you will rejoin in happiness. Today, you tremble and shiver, but on Sunday you will be rejoiced of the gospel. When the Jews will hear about the resurrection of the one they have crucified, they will cry aloud in sorrow. Because of all these, we pray to you O Lord Jesus, remove our sufferings and miseries on this day of your passion, that provided salvation to us. By the might of Thy divine power and by the mercy of Thy Father and Thy Holy Spirit, cleanse us from our sins and give us strength to defeat our enemies. We offer praise and thanks to Thee, Thy Father and to Thy Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

Response : Amen.

Deacon:- With calmness and reverence and with sober minds, let us give heed, and listen to the Proclamation of the living words of God, in the Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, that is read to us.

Celebrant : Glory to the Lord, His mercies by upon us and upon you for ever.

Response : Amen.

Celebrant : The Holy Gospel from the Apostle John.

Response : Kurielaison.

St. Luke 23 : 34 – 43

Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” And they divided up his clothes by casting lots. The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him. They said, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.” The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar and said, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.” There was a written notice above him, which read: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: “Aren’t you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!” But the other criminal rebuked him. “Don’t you fear God,” he said, “since you are under the same sentence? We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong.” Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” Jesus answered him, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

6th Hour Readings:

Luke 23:26-34; Matthew 27:34; John 19:23-24; Matthew 27:36-37; Matthew 27:39-43;
 Luke 23:36-37; Luke 23:39-45; John 19:25-27;

Luke 23:26-34

As the soldiers led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wailed for him. Jesus turned and said to them, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children. For the time will come when you will say, ‘Blessed are the childless women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!’ Then “they will say to the mountains, “Fall on us!” and to the hills, “Cover us!” For if people do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?” Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.

Matthew 27:34

There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall; but after tasting it, he refused to drink it.

John 19:23-24

When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining. This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom. “Let’s not tear it,” they said to one another. “Let’s decide by lot who will get it.” This happened that the scripture might be fulfilled that said, “They divided my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment.” So this is what the soldiers did.

Matthew 27:36-37

And sitting down, they kept watch over him there.³⁷ Above his head they placed the written charge against him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Matthew 27:39-43

Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads and saying, “You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!” In the same way the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders mocked him. “He saved others,” they said, “but he can’t save himself! He’s the king of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. He trusts in God. Let God rescue him now if he wants him, for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'”

Luke 23:36-37

The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar and said, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.”

Luke 23:39-45

One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: “Aren’t you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!” But the other criminal rebuked him. “Don’t you fear God,” he said, “since you are under the same sentence? We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong.” Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” Jesus answered him, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.” It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

John 19:25-27

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to her, “Woman, here is your son,” and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

9TH HOUR PRAYER

Narrative : Coming before the crowd one last time, Pilate declares Jesus innocent and washed his own hands in water to show he has no part in this condemnation. Nevertheless, Pilate hands Jesus over to be crucified in order to forestall a riot (Matthew 27:24-26). The sentence written was "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews." Jesus carries his cross to the site of execution (assisted by Simon of Cyrene), called the place of the Skull, or "Golgotha" in Hebrew and in Latin "Calvary". There he was crucified along with two criminals (John 19:17-22).

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor.

PROMIYON – SEDRA

Celebrant : Let us all pray and beseech the Lord for mercy and compassion.
Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy upon us and help us.

Celebrant : Make us worthy, O Lord, to offer up continually at all times and in all seasons praise and thanksgiving, glory and honor and never ceasing exaltation.

Praise to the Lord who is invisible and mighty in his divine nature; who while immortal and removed from all sufferings, by Thy own will came down to us to suffer passion and death on the cross for our salvation; and the Judge of judges who stood before Pilate's tribunal to free us from the affliction of sins; and the Lord who hears our prayers and supplications and who prayed and begged His Father for us; to him be glory and honor at this time of the 9th hour prayer of Thy Holy Passion, at all feasts, seasons and hours and all the days of our lives forever.

Response : Amen.

Celebrant : We praise and thank Thee sublime majesty, O mighty God, we praise Thy glory for creating us in Thy image and likeness. Our Lord and God and the only begotten son and word of the Heavenly Father we glorify Thy salvific redemption. We praise Thee and Thy Holy Spirit, who brought forth worshippers from the worthless soil of this world. Friday you created Adam, the first man of our race and placed him in paradise, making him equal to the angels and committing to him dominion over the earth. But he approached the forbidden fruit, led by selfish desires and ambitions, and lost his grace and became naked. He heard a mighty voice calling him, "Adam, Adam, where are you? He answered trembling and with shame, "Lord, I heard your voice and I hid." Then the Lord told him, "Leave your heritage, disobedient subject, and go forth to suffer and toil in the cursed soil filled with thorns." And accordingly, Lord, on your orders he was exiled from the Paradise you have created for him and went in to the sorrowful life with his helper Eve you have created for him. But you have decided not to let your Lordly image perish and hence sent the Eternal Word for our salvation and he became man like us. He freed us by his redeeming passion and on this same Friday offered himself on the cross to save the guilty Adam. He was imprisoned and was struck by whips like a thief at the home of Caiaphas; he was tied like a criminal to a pillar for whipping and then led to death like a criminal. On Friday Adam was created, and on Friday Christ Jesus, our Lord, suffered in our place and redeemed us. On Friday God fashioned Adam and on Friday Christ accepted the spittle of the unclean sons of Adam. On Friday the animals you created came before Adam and bowed their head and kneeled before him to get them named; and on Friday the elders called their assembly against Christ, mocking him saying, "Hail to you, King of the Jews!" Thus was accomplished the prophecy of David, "Many bulls surrounded me and the calves of Bashan encircled me". On Friday the Royal crown is put on the head of Adam and on Friday they put a crown of thorns on the head of Adam's Lord. On Friday Eve gave Adam the forbidden fruit and he ate it, and on Friday the Sanhedrin which crucified Christ gave him vinegar and gall to drink and he drank it. On Friday Adam sat naked in Paradise for Three hours and on Friday Adam's Lord stayed naked on the cross for three hours. On Friday, Eve, the mother of all the earth was created from Adam's rib, and on Friday the chalice of life for the salvation of the whole world originated from the right side of our Lord. On Friday Adam and Eve sinned and on Friday their sins were pardoned. On Friday a light appeared to give them new life. On Friday they were seized by death and on Friday the oppressive power of death was abolished. On Friday Adam and Eve bowed their heads in shame and went out of Paradise, and on Friday the sign of the Victorious cross took them back to their Paradise. On Friday the Lord was stripped off his glorious garb and He put them on Adam and Eve giving them the glory they lost in Paradise. Friday the evil deceived them and they noticed their nakedness and on Friday Christ overthrew Satan and confounded the armies of the damned. The door of Paradise was closed on Friday and Adam and Eve were exiled from there, and on Friday it was opened again and the thief on the right entered through it. On Friday the cherubim received a lance to guard the entrance of paradise and the tree of life; and on Friday Christ was struck with a lance, causing the lance of the cherub to disappear, destroying the wall of separation. On Friday Adam was made priest, king and prophet, and on Friday the priesthood, royalty and prophetic ministry were removed from the Sanhedrin. On Friday Adam disobeyed and left paradise, and on Friday Christ descended from the summit of the cross towards those who were in the abyss. Christ during his redemptive operation performed everything which Adam did except sin. He became victorious over death and sentenced sin. The cross of Lord Jesus was raised on the same place where Adam was buried and where Melchizedek did his priesthood and where Abraham sacrificed his Son. Thus the blood and water from Christ was dropped in to the mouth of Adam giving him life again. Our Lord and our God, for all these we praise and worship Thee, Thy father and Thy Holy spirit for ever and ever.

Response : Amen.

St. Mathew 27 : 45 – 56

From noon until three in the afternoon darkness came over all the land. About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” (which means “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”). When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “He’s calling Elijah.” Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a staff, and offered it to Jesus to drink. The rest said, “Now leave him alone. Let’s see if Elijah comes to save him.” And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit. At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, the rocks split and the tombs broke open. The bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. They came out of the tombs after Jesus’ resurrection and^[e] went into the holy city and appeared to many people. When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, “Surely he was the Son of God!” Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for his needs. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph,^[f] and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “He’s calling Elijah.”

John 19:28-29

Later, knowing that everything had now been finished, and so that Scripture would be fulfilled, Jesus said, “I am thirsty.” A jar of wine vinegar was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of the hyssop plant, and lifted it to Jesus’ lips.

Matthew 27:49

The rest said, “Now leave him alone. Let’s see if Elijah comes to save him.”

John 19:30

When he had received the drink, Jesus said, “It is finished.” With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Luke 23:46

Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.” When he had said this, he breathed his last.

Matthew 27:51-54

VENERATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Narrative : Jesus agonizes on the cross for six hours. During his last 3 hours on the cross, from noon to 3 p.m., darkness falls over the whole land. With a loud cry, Jesus gives up his spirit. There is an earthquake, tombs break open, and the curtain in the Temple is torn from top to bottom. The centurion on guard at the site of crucifixion declares, "Truly this was God's Son!" (Matthew 27:45-54)

INTRODUCTORY PRAYER

Celebrant: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Response: And upon us, weak and sinful, may mercy and compassion come down abundantly in both worlds, forever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant : Make us worthy, O Lord , that with our souls steadfast in Thy Holy Cross, we may worship Thee as divinely befitting to Thy holiness. May we, in compliance with Thy supreme command, carry Thy Cross on our shoulders in a Christian like manner, always ready to mortify our members which are on earth and live by you in the fear of God for You are the true life, and constantly awaiting the blessed hope and the glorious revelation from heaven when Thou give reward to those who adore Thy Cross and to those who confess Thy Holy Name, our Lord and our God, forever.

Response : Amen.

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

- 5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
- 6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
- 7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
- 8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
- 9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
- 10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

- 1. And Mary said: "My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed,
- 2. For the Mighty One has done great things for me - holy is his name. His mercy extends to those who fear him, from generation to generation.
- 3. He has performed mighty deeds with his arm; he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.
- 4. He has brought down rulers from their thrones but has lifted up the humble.
- 5. He has filled the hungry with good things but has sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, remembering to be merciful to Abraham and his descendants forever, just as he promised our ancestors."

PROMIYON – SEDRO

Celebrant : Let us all beseech the Lord for grace and mercy.

Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy on us and help us.

Celebrant : Glory and thanksgiving, praise and adoration and unceasing exaltation, truly at all times and hours, may we ascribe unto Thee O Lord. Glory be to the heavenly peace who embraced his own race and the gentiles with His extended hand while being crucified on the cross; To the incarnate Lord who turning towards the west ascended on the cross and accepted true glory and genuine worship from all the boundaries; and to the true pastor who revealed His genuine pastorate because of his concern for the sheep, confirmed the manifoldness of His grace by sacrificing His life for the church, redeemed all races through his determination, and forgave the sins of all by His sacrifice. To him be glory and honour and worship in this time when the Holy cross is being venerated and at all times and seasons and hours and all the days of our life for ever. B'kulhun...

Response : Amen

Celebrant : O God, majestic ! we adore and give thanks and glorify Thee eternally for having created us in Thine image. We glorify Thy salvation for having redeemed us by Thy cross on this Friday and granted us freedom by hope in Thee. In the beginning, on the sixth day Thou didst create us by Thy holy will. Thou didst take the clay of a "Adamatho" and shaped it in accordance with Thy image. Thou didst blow the breath of life on his face. He became endowed with beauty and was filled with wisdom which made him a container of miracle. However, through ignorance he broke Thy commandment and became contemptible and was destroyed by death having been indicted at the judgement. Compassionate and merciful and gracious Lord ! Later Thou wast moved by his destruction and for his salvation on this mystery filled Friday, the very sixth day of the week Thy hands were nailed on the cross. Thou hadst to accept the dirty spitting of the crucifiers. To give him life Thou wast pierced by a spear on Thy side. He was renewed after gaining new life from the blood and water that flowed from Thy side.

Now, Lord the church on this Friday of the commemoration of Thy redeeming passions and life giving cross requests through the mouths of her children and pleads with this fragrance of incense. As Thou didst create by Thy holy will in the beginning and redeemed at the end; so do Thou look upon Thy creatures and help the face of the earth through Thy cross.

By Thy Cross, calm down anger.

By Thy Cross, Quiet the wars.

By Thy Cross, Do away with conflicts.

By Thy Cross, Forbid punishments.

By Thy Cross, Calm down the turbulent people.

By Thy Cross, Give peace to the belligerent.

By Thy Cross, May pride be brought down.

By Thy Cross, Destroy vain glory.

By Thy Cross, Get rid of enmity.

By Thy Cross, May anger be controlled.

By Thy Cross, Curb down the intensity of the evil.

By Thy Cross, Stabilize the churches.

By Thy Cross, Strengthen the monasteries.

By Thy Cross, Enlighten the priests.

By Thy Cross, Exalt the deacons.

By Thy Cross, Uphold the elderly.

By Thy Cross, Restrain the emotions of youth.

By Thy Cross, Give growth to infants.

By Thy Cross, Give absolution to sinners.

By Thy Cross, Forgive the criminals.

Now, give sublime order to this, Thy parish which worships before Thy presence honours Thy passions, fondles Thy wounds, kisses and boasts about Thy cross. Give complete salvation to us and all the people. Fulfill Thy promise to us. Visit us by Thy resurrection enabling us to reach Thy glorious resurrection with brightness of face. Make us heirs of Thine eternal kingdom and guests in Thy banquets and servants in Thy chamber. Make us worthy to offer praise and thanks to Thee and Thy Father and Thy Holy spirit incessantly now and for ever.

Response : Amen

Celebrant : May we receive from God remission of debts and forgiveness of sins, in both worlds now and forever and ever.

Response : Amen.

ETHRO - HOOTTHOMMA

Celebrant : Let us all beseech the Lord for grace and mercy.

Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy on us and help us.

Celebrant : We praise Thee O Lord, who had the mercy to help the world by Thy fragrance. Thy passion on the Cross has become the spiritual incense which has reconciled the world with Thy Father. Glory to Thee our good shepherd and our main Priest who has become the incense for us on the cross through Thy passion. Thy suffering on the cross symbolized the fire of the incense and Thy love towards us symbolized the frankincense in the incense which Thou offered before Thy Father for the redemption of our race.

May this incense we offer unto thee through our weak and sinful hands be acceptable in The presence and may our congregation and all the faithful be granted forgiveness of offences and redemption of sins and may our faithful departed be granted relief and good remembrance. And we will always give Thee praise and to Thy Father and Thy Holy Spirit forever and ever.

Response: Amen

Celebrant : Praise to Thee, O Victorious creator who by Thy greater wisdom created and expanded the world in four quarters and by Thy great love united it as one; and who is the image of Lord the Father; and who by Thy heavenly Word removed the supremacy of the devil; and the gracious Lord, while having eternal life, died on the cross in this earthly body for redeeming us; and the One Holy God of Israel who hung before us on the cross; We praise Thee O Lord and grant us the mercy and grace to have our eyes, mind and spirit concentrate on Thy Holy Passion. May we be saved from the terrors flying by night or by day, or of the arrows which the devil, the adversary throws at us. Because, Thou art our strong refuge and protection. May we and our congregation be sheltered by Thy right hand and may the sign of Thy victorious cross keep and protect us for Thy heavenly kingdom. To Thee we offer praise and glory with Thy Father and Thy Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Response : Amen.

Deacon : The song of glory and salvation in the tabernacle of the righteous was sung by David through the Holy Spirit.

Genesis 22 : 1 – 14.

Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied. Then God said, "Take your son, your only son, whom you love – Isaac - and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you." Early the next morning Abraham got up and loaded his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. He said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you." Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together, Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, "Father?" "Yes, my son?" Abraham replied. "The fire and wood are here," Isaac said, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?" Abraham answered, "God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." And the two of them went on together. When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. ¹¹ But the angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, "Abraham! Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied. "Do not lay a hand on the boy," he said. "Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son." Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place The LORD Will Provide. And to this day it is said, "On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided."

Exodus 17 : 8 – 16

The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hands.” So Joshua fought the Amalekites as Moses had ordered, and Moses, Aaron and Hur went to the top of the hill. As long as Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning, but whenever he lowered his hands, the Amalekites were winning. When Moses’ hands grew tired, they took a stone and put it under him and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held his hands up—one on one side, one on the other—so that his hands remained steady till sunset. So Joshua overcame the Amalekite army with the sword. Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this on a scroll as something to be remembered and make sure that Joshua hears it, because I will completely blot out the name of Amalek from under heaven.” Moses built an altar and called it The LORD is my Banner. He said, “Because hands were lifted up against the throne of the LORD, the LORD will be at war against the Amalekites from generation to generation.”

Isaiah 52 : 13 – 53 : 8

See, my servant will act wisely; he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted. Just as there were many who were appalled at him - his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being and his form marred beyond human likeness - so he will sprinkle many nations, and kings will shut their mouths because of him. For what they were not told, they will see, and what they have not heard, they will understand. Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by mankind, a man of suffering, and familiar with pain. Like one from whom people hide their faces he was despised, and we held him in low esteem. Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed. We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away. Yet who of his generation protested? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was punished.

1 Peter 2: 19 - 25

For it is commendable if someone bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because they are conscious of God. But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps. "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth." When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. "He himself bore our sins" in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; "by his wounds you have been healed." For "you were like sheep going astray," but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Deacon : The lesson from the Epistle of St. Paul, the Holy Apostle of the Lord to the Galatians, Ahai Barekmor.

Response : Glory be to the Lord of the Apostles and his mercy be upon us for ever. Amen.

Galatians 2 : 21 – 3 : 14

I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing!" You foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? Before your very eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed as crucified. I would like to learn just one thing from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by believing what you heard? Are you so foolish? After beginning by means of the Spirit, are you now trying to finish by means of the flesh? Have you experienced so much in vain - if it really was in vain? So again I ask, does God give you his Spirit and work miracles among you by the works of the law, or by your believing what you heard? So also Abraham "believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." Understand, then, that those who have faith are children of Abraham. Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: "All nations will be blessed through you." So those who rely on faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith. For all who rely on the works of the law are under a curse, as it is written: "Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law." Clearly no one who relies on the law is justified before God, because "the righteous will live by faith." The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, it says, "The person who does these things will live by them." Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: "Cursed is everyone who is hung on a pole." He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

St. John 19 : 31 – 42.

Now it was the day of Preparation, and the next day was to be a special Sabbath. Because the Jewish leaders did not want the bodies left on the crosses during the Sabbath, they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and then those of the other. But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus' side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water. The man who saw it has given testimony, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, and he testifies so that you also may believe. These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken," and, as another scripture says, "They will look on the one they have pierced.” Later, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. Now Joseph was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because he feared the Jewish leaders. With Pilate’s permission, he came and took the body away. He was accompanied by Nicodemus, the man who earlier had visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds. Taking Jesus’ body, the two of them wrapped it, with the spices, in strips of linen. This was in accordance with Jewish burial customs. At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid. Because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

Narrative : The service from here on commemorates Joseph and Nicodemus taking the Blessed Body of Christ from the Cross and taking it in a procession and burying. Joseph of Arimathea, a member of the Sanhedrin and secret follower of Jesus, who had not consented to the Lords condemnation, goes to Pilate to request the body of Jesus (Luke 23:50-52) Another secret follower of Jesus and member of the Sanhedrin, Nicodemus brought a mixture of spices and helped wrap the body (John 19:39-40). Pilate asks confirmation from the centurion whether Jesus was dead (Mark 15:44). A soldier pierced the side of Jesus with a lance causing blood and water to flow out (John 19:34) , and the centurion informs Pilate that Jesus was dead (Mark 15:45).

KABARADAKKAM

Narrative : Joseph of Arimathea wrapped Jesus' body in a clean linen shroud, and placed it in his own new tomb that had been carved in the rock (Matthew 27: 59-60) in a garden near the site of crucifixion. Nicodemus also brought myrrh and aloes, and placed them in the linen with the body, in keeping with Jewish burial customs. They rolled a large rock over the entrance of the tomb (Matthew 27:60).

PROMIYON

Celebrant : Let us all beseech the Lord for grace and mercy.

Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy on us and help us.

Celebrant : Glory and praise be to the Immortal and gracious Lord who according to his loving kindness and upon his own will suffered death; and out of His great love remained in a tomb like a helpless; and one who is raising the dead and restoring those who rest in tombs; and the creator of the universe and of all things who like a destitute was covered in a piece of cloth and buried by Joseph and Nicodemos; and one who heeds to the requests of the crying raven fledglings was today asked to Judge for permission for his body to be buried ; and who redeemed us by his passion and death; we offer Thee glory and praise now at the time of the Burial of our Lord and at all festivals, times, hours, seasons and through all the days of our life forever.

Response : Amen.

Celebrant : Christ, our God, the Light and the True Life, the immortal, by Thy own will died and was buried in a new tomb of Joseph. We honor and rejoice at Thy glorious and life-giving Burial and praise Thee for Thy Holy and lifegiving Burial which gave rest to the departed who were buried in tombs. This life giving burial gave happiness to those who were sleeping in the pit of hell. Those dried bones which were eagerly waiting for this life-giving burial got their life today. This life giving burial made death and Satan trembled out of fear and destroyed their power. This life giving burial destroyed the walls of Sheol and broke down its fortresses. This Divine Burial gave suffering and sorrow to the hosts, armies and powers of darkness. This Divine Burial clothed Adam and all faithful with the garments of glory and grace. This life-giving burial bestowed new life to all righteous saints. This life-giving Burial sowed goodness in the strongholds of Sheol and destroyed its evil powers. This life-giving Burial made Adam and his race inheritors of the heavenly kingdom. This Divine Burial saddened the devil and his powers and redeemed those who were under his captivation and destroyed the slavery under devil for ever. This Divine Burial granted Adam and his children courage and happiness. The dead who were resting in their tombs in the dust gladdened and rejoiced on this glorious burial. This Divine Burial gave life and light to the true faithful. This Divine Burial granted real hope and life to the father of our race. This Divine Burial made heavenly hosts from the high descend and venerate the tomb of the begotten Son of their Heavenly Master. This Divine Burial gave the fragrance of gladness and joy which made the departed remain in their tombs rejoicing with happiness.

This Divine Burial shed the brilliant mighty light on the departed. This Divine Burial gave purity and holiness to the faithful and shame and sorrow to the unfaithful. Those who were buried in the tomb obtained grace and mercy and compassion by This Divine Burial This Divine Burial brought abundant peace and reconciliation between the heavenly and earthly. This Divine Burial opened doors of the heavenly bridal chambers to those who were driven away from their inheritance.

O Lord and our God with this incense which we have offered unto Thee, we beseech Thy mercy to blot out our sins and transgressions. Forgive our unrighteousness and grant eternal rest and relief to our faithful departed who have proceeded unto Thee. Together with them, we offer Thee praise and honor with Thy Father and Thy Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Response : Amen

MALAKHAMARUDE STHUTHIPPU.

As the exalted angels and archangels in heaven sing praise and glorify Thee, likewise we frail and sinful earthly ones praise and glorify Thee.

Glory be to God on high at all times and in all moments; and may peace, reconciliation and hope be upon all mankind on earth.

We praise Thee, we bless thee, we worship thee and we raise the song of praise unto thee.

We praise Thee for the greatness of Thy glory, O Lord God, The Great Father
Almighty, The creator, The heavenly King, The only begotten son Jesus Christ and Thee O Holy Spirit.

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son and Word of The Father , who barest and hast borne the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou who barest and hast borne the sins of the world, incline Thine ear to us and accept our prayers and supplications.

Thou who sittest in glory at the right hand of the Father, have compassion and mercy upon us.

For Thou art, and alone Thou art Holy, O Lord, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, for the glory of God, The Father.

At all times and in all the days of our life time we will bless Thee and praise Thy blessed Holy name for ever, O Thou who art and abides for ever and ever.

Almighty God, God of our fore-fathers; blessed art Thou and glorious Thy name, and exalted by praises for ever and ever.

Meet to Thee is glory; becoming to Thee is praise; befitting to Thee is adoration. O God of all, The Father of truth, with Thine only begotten Son, and the living Holy Spirit, now and always for ever and ever. Amen.

MORAN YESHU MESIHA

O Jesus Christ, our Lord, close not the door of Thy mercy upon our faces. We confess, we are sinners; have mercy upon us. O Lord, Thy love for us didst make Thee to come down to us from Thy place. That by Thy, death, our death be abolished; Have mercy upon us. Amen.

KAUMA (TRISAGION)

Narrative : Here we say the Trisagion first time in the Holy week because the first three lines of the Trisagion was sung for the first time by the Holy angels and Heavenly Hosts at the time of the burial of Christ. While the Heavenly sung the first three lines; the earthly sung "Crucified for us, Have mercy on us".

Holy art thou, O God!
Holy art thou, Almighty,
Holy art thou, Immortal,

Crucified for us, Have mercy on us. (Three times) †

Lord, have mercy upon us, Lord be kind, and have mercy, Lord accept our office and our entreaties, Have mercy on us.

Glory be to Thee, O God! Glory be to Thee, O Creator, Glory be to Thee, O King, Christ who dost pity sinners thy servants. Barekmor.

Our Father who art in heaven, – hallowed be thy name, - Thy kingdom come, - Thy will be done on earth, - as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, - and forgive us our debts and sins, - as we also have forgiven our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, - but deliver us from the evil one. For Thine is the kingdom, - the power and the glory, - forever and ever. –Amen

THE NICENE CREED

Celebrant :- We believe In One True God,

Response : The Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible; And in the One Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God; begotten of the Father before all worlds; Light of Light; Very God of very God; begotten, not made; being of the same substance with the Father; and by whom all things were made:

+ Who For Us Men, And For Our Salvation, Came Down From Heaven, + And Was Incarnate Of The Holy Virgin Mary, Mother Of God, By The Holy Ghost, And Became Man:

+ And Was Crucified For Us, In The Days Of Pontius Pilate; And suffered, And Died, And Was Buried:

And the third day rose again according to His will: and ascended into heaven, and sat on the right hand of the Father; and shall come again in His great glory to judge both the quick and the dead: whose kingdom shall have no end.

And in the one living Holy Spirit, the life-giving Lord of all, who proceeds from the Father; and who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified: who spoke by the prophets and the Apostles:

And in the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church; And we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins: and look for the resurrection of the dead: And the new life in the world to come. Amen.

HOLY SATURDAY SERVICE

Narrative : The Malankara Orthodox Holy Saturday Liturgical service is conducted traditionally in the mid morning of Saturday in the Holy week. On Great and Holy Saturday the Church contemplates the mystery of the Lord's descent into Hades, the place of the dead. Death, our ultimate enemy, is defeated from within. Christ gave Himself as a ransom to death in which we were held captive, sold under sin. Descending into Hades through the Cross ... He loosened the bonds of death" (Liturgy of St. Basil).
Great Saturday is the day of the pre-eminent rest. Christ observes a Sabbath rest in the tomb. His rest, however, is not inactivity but the fulfillment of the divine will and plan for the salvation of humankind and the cosmos. Through His incarnation, life and death Christ has filled all things with Himself He has opened a path for all flesh to the resurrection from the dead.

Praise to - Thee O Lord, To Thy - Father Praise,
 Worship, Honor, Glory to - Holy Ghost.
 Grace a-nd mercy be up-on us sinners,
 Opened, be to us gates of Je-rusalem.
 May o-ur pleas be heard at the Throne of Christ,
 Praise to – Thee, O Lord Praise to – Thee, O Lord Ever
 Praise to Thee, our h-ope . Barekmor.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our debts and sins as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from the evil one, for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor.

PSALM – 63

1. O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you, my body longs for you, in a dry and weary land where there is no water.
2. I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory. Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you.
3. I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands.
4. My soul will be satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you.
5. On my bed I remember you; I think of you through the watches of the night. Because you are my help, I sing in the shadow of your wings. My soul clings to you; your right hand upholds me.
6. They who seek my life will be destroyed; they will go down to the depths of the earth. They will be given over to the sword and become food for jackals.
7. But the king will rejoice in God; all who swear by God's name will praise him, while the mouths of liars will be silenced.

PSALM 19

1. The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands. Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge.
2. There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard. Their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.
3. In the heavens he has pitched a tent for the sun, which is like a bridegroom coming forth from his pavilion, like a champion rejoicing to run his course. It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is hidden from its heat.

- 4. The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul. The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.
- 5. The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.
- 6. The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever. The ordinances of the LORD are sure and altogether righteous. They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold; they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the comb.
- 7. By them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward. Who can discern his errors? Forgive my hidden faults.
- 8. Keep your servant also from willful sins; may they not rule over me. Then will I be blameless, innocent of great transgression.
- 9. May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

PSALM : 113

1. Praise the LORD. Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.
2. Let the name of the LORD be praised, both now and forevermore. From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets, the name of the LORD is to be praised.
3. The LORD is exalted over all the nations, his glory above the heavens. Who is like the LORD our God, the One who sits enthroned on high, who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth?
4. He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap; he seats them with princes, with the princes of their people. He settles the barren woman in her home as a happy mother of children. Praise the LORD.

HOLY EVANGELIYON

St. Mathew 27 : 62 - 66

The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. "Sir," they said, "we remember that while he was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.' So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first." "Take a guard," Pilate answered. "Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how." So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting the guard.

EASTER LITURGY

Celebrant : Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Response : And upon us the weak and the sinful, may mercy and compassion come down abundantly in both worlds for ever and ever.

Response : Amen.

INTRODUCTORY PRAYER

Celebrant : O Christ our Lord, who didst bear cross and sufferings for our redemption and who embraced death by Thy own will to give life to our death and who didst rise from the tomb and resurrected us together with Thee; fill us with Thy peace and tranquility on this glorious feast of Thy resurrection. Gaze on us with Thy benevolent compassion. Be merciful to us to take away our pains and sicknesses. Protect us from all punishments and rods of wrath, in Thy mercy in order for us to joyfully celebrate the feast our Lord and eternal God for ever and ever.

Response : Amen

PSALM : 51

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
2. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
3. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
4. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
5. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
6. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
7. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
8. Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
9. You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
10. In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

And to you belongs the praise O God. Barekmor.

PROMIYON

Celebrant : Let us beseech the Lord for mercy and compassion.

Response : O merciful Lord, have mercy on us and help us.

Celebrant : Glory and thanksgiving, praise and adoration and unceasing exaltation, truly at all times and hours, may we ascribe unto Thee, O Lord. Glory be to the peace who was sent by the Father who reconciled the enraged; and to the awe inspiring tranquility which brought the hostile into harmony; and to the Lord who by his benevolent love for mankind descended from heaven and dismantled the wall of enmity created by the serpent; and who told his disciples, "I give you my peace, and my peace I do give unto you"; and who made the holy women and the disciples jubilant with happiness by His resurrected peace; and who mandated His disciples to proclaim the peace and reconciliation to every one; and who sowed peace and reconciliation between the heavenly and earthly; and who by His resurrection put the infidels to shame and gladdened the disciples. We beseech Thee on this feast of Thy life-giving resurrection; to establish Thy peace in our Churches, and bring tranquility to our monasteries. Keep all destructive conflicts and hatreds away from us. May we exchange peace through the kiss of Thy holy Spirit and may we become peace lovers and the children of peace. We give to Thee glory, worship and honour at this time of our remembering Thy resurrection and at all festivals, and in all times and seasons, and all the days of our life, forever and ever.

Response : Amen

Celebrant : O Christ, our God, who is the strength and wisdom of Thy eternal Father: Thou art substantially and naturally the peace that provides tranquility to all Thy creations, and Thou art the conciliation that reconciles all and Thou art the King of Peace who reconciled Thy Heavenly Father with the whole creations on earth who sinned against Thy Holy Father by the deception of the devil. Permanent peace was established between the heavenly and the earthly through Thee. Thou didst quieten the ship of Noah troubled by the turbulent ocean. Thou didst give peace to earth when it was about to be destroyed with flood on account of our sins. Thy peace made a way through the Red Sea. Thy peace let the feet of the Israelites through the ocean waves. Thy peace resolved the conflict created by the devil when he cheated Eve in the garden of Eden. Thy peace brought down by Angel Gabriel did away with the accumulated curse of sighs from our human race. Thy peace quietened the turbulent sea which was about to wreck the boat traveled by the disciples. Thy peace cast away the fear in their hearts and minds. Thy peace made them confess strongly Thy redeeming resurrection. Thy peace removed all the doubts they had in their hearts. Thy peace removed the sorrow they had when they had supper with Thee in the upper room. Thy peace united all of them who fled on Friday. Thy peace brought them out from their hiding places. Thy peace gave them the strong conviction about Thy gospel. Thy peace eliminated the revolving sword of the fiery which was protecting the Tree of Life. Thy peace exterminated the sword which killed and sacrificed before idols. Thy peace blotted out tears from the face of the human race and filled the world with happiness. Thy peace gladdened the whole creation on this earth.

O Lord, who art the peace of the Father that brought reconciliation to the heights and depths and to all in those realms; grant us the grace to embrace each other with a kiss inspired by the Holy Spirit on this Holy day of Thy resurrection. May we be united with Thee and with each other in our spirits by Thy grace and may that unity help us to refrain from bad emotions. May we be filled with the tranquility and peace provided to us by Thy grace. May the souls of the children of Thy Church burn in spiritual love because of the kiss of Thy peace. May there be inseparable unity with Thee and with each other by Thy peace. May Thy peace protect Thy Holy Church from all heresies and evil tactics of the devil and bring tranquility in the Church. May Thy peace drive out adversaries who combat Thy Church by their arguments. May Thy peace protect the true and divine promises for the Church. May Thy peace fill the fortresses of the Church with her devotees. May Thy peace make her horn mighty with the shepherds who toil to uplift her. May Thy peace adorn her with the lines of priests and deacons who please Thee always. May Thy peace unite her children in spiritual unity and oneness. May Thy peace bless them with unselfish love and affection to one another. May Thy peace brighten them with spiritual love. May Thy peace perfect them with true faith and bless them with good moral virtues. May Thy peace adorn them with the garment of humble spirit. May Thy peace fill them with meekness and compassion. May Thy peace make them observe Thy life-giving commandments. May Thy peace purify them from all deceptions and hatreds. May Thy peace free them from all sorts of flatteries. May Thy peace abolish the enmity and hatred in them, and do away with discord and conflicts. May Thy peace eliminate quarrels and anger among them, and put an end to all kinds of rifts and strife. May Thy peace take wars and quarrels away from them. May Thy peace fill them with love and mercy. May Thy peace adorn them with the sweet fruits of virtues of perfection and make them worthy to be Thy Holy temples with purity and integrity. May Thy divinity dwell in them permanently. May they be illumined with Thy divine gifts and shine with Holy thoughts and spiritual brightness and remain with a clean heart and innocent thoughts and embrace one another with purity and holiness. May Thy peace unite them by holy embrace and be mutually connected by the kiss of the Holy Spirit, and be united with each other like the incorporeal watches. May Thy peace help them to be said by the gentiles as the children blessed by the Lord, and are worthy of the heavenly fold enjoying eternal joy and perpetual delight. May our faithful departed, who made their journey to Thee with true faith rest in blessed mansions. Together with them, we offer praise and thanksgiving to Thee, and to Thy blessed and Holy Father who sent Thee for our salvation, and to the living Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Response : Amen

Celebrant : May we receive from God remission of debts and forgiveness of sins, in both worlds for ever and ever.

Response : Amen.

Deacon : The lesson from the third book of Moses, the first among Prophets, Barekmor.

Response : Glory be to the Lord of Prophets and his mercy be upon us for ever. Amen.

Leviticus 23 : 26 – 32

The LORD said to Moses, “The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. Hold a sacred assembly and deny yourselves, and present a food offering to the LORD. Do not do any work on that day, because it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before the LORD your God. Those who do not deny themselves on that day must be cut off from their people. I will destroy from among their people anyone who does any work on that day. You shall do no work at all. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live. It is a day of sabbath rest for you, and you must deny yourselves. From the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening you are to observe your sabbath.”

I create praise on their lips. Peace, peace, to those far and near,” says the LORD. “And I will heal them.” But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, whose waves cast up mire and mud. “There is no peace,” says my God, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 60 : 17 - 22

Instead of bronze I will bring you gold, and silver in place of iron. Instead of wood I will bring you bronze, and iron in place of stones. I will make peace your governor and well-being your ruler. No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders, but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise. The sun will no more be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you, for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory. Your sun will never set again, and your moon will wane no more; the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of sorrow will end. Then all your people will be righteous and they will possess the land forever. They are the shoot I have planted, the work of my hands, for the display of my splendor. The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly.”

1 Peter 5 : 5 – 14

In the same way, you who are younger, submit yourselves to your elders. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, "God opposes the proud but shows favor to the humble." Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you. Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings. And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen. With the help of Silas, whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it. She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you her greetings, and so does my son Mark. Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

Paul The Lord's Apostle said
 If one come to preach to you
 A doctrine other than I preached to you
 Be he man or angel bright,
 Cursed be he in Church's sight;
 Doctrines all diverse arise,
 Shooting up with many lies;
 Blest is he who first and last
 Trusts God's truth and holds it fast. (2)

Deacon : The lesson from the first Epistle of St. Paul, the Holy Apostle of the Lord to the Romans, Ahai Barekmor.

Response : Glory be to the Lord of the Apostles and his mercy be upon us for ever. Amen.

Romans 16 : 1 – 27

I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deacon of the church in Cenchreae. I ask you to receive her in the Lord in a way worthy of his people and to give her any help she may need from you, for she has been the benefactor of many people, including me. Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my co-workers in Christ Jesus. They risked their lives for me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them. Greet also the church that meets at their house. Greet my dear friend Epenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in the province of Asia. Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you. Greet Andronicus and Junia, my fellow Jews who have been in prison with me. They are outstanding among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was. Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord. Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys. Greet Apelles, whose fidelity to Christ has stood the test. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus. Greet Herodion, my fellow Jew. Greet those in the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord. Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, those women who work hard in the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, another woman who has worked very hard in the Lord. Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me, too. Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas and the other brothers and sisters with them. Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas and all the Lord's people who are with them. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ send greetings. I urge you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching you have learned. Keep away from them. For such people are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own appetites. By smooth talk and flattery they deceive the minds of naive people. Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I rejoice because of you; but I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. Timothy, my co-worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my fellow Jews. I, Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord. Gaius, whose hospitality I and the whole church here enjoy, sends you his greetings. Erastus, who is the city's director of public works, and our brother Quartus send you their greetings. Now to him who is able to establish you in accordance with my gospel, the message I proclaim about Jesus Christ, in keeping with the revelation of the mystery hidden for long ages past, but now revealed and made known through the prophetic writings by the command of the eternal God, so that all the Gentiles might come to the obedience that comes from faith - to the only wise God be glory forever through Jesus Christ! Amen.

Ahai Barekmor.

Deacon:- With calmness and reverence and with sober minds, let us give heed, and listen to the Proclamation of the living words of God, in the Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, that is read to us.

Celebrant : Peace be to you all.

Response : May the Lord God make us worthy with thy spirit.

Celebrant : The Holy Evengalion of our Lord Jesus Christ.....

Response : Blessed is He who has come and is to come; Praise be to Him who sent Him for our salvation and his mercy be upon us all, for ever.

Celebrant : At the time of the dispensation of our Lord and God.....

Response : We believe and confess.

John 13 : 34-35, 14 : 27, 15 : 11 -15, and 17 – 19.

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command. I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master’s business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. This is my command: Love each other. “If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you.

Celebrant : Peace be unto you all.
